MR. AND MRS. CARL LYKKEN, dressed in some of their 1917 wedding clothes, stop to chat with Mrs. Frank Bennett in her garden. They came by to discuss Sunday's inaugural Founders Day celebration and box lunch at Tamarisk Park. The Lykkens celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary on the 7th of this month. They were married in Pasadena, but came immediately to Palm Springs, where he was the Village's first Postmaster.

Cooper Praises C of C Course on Management

Basic procedure in managing a Chamber of Commerce as taught during a week of intense study at Stanford's Western Institute last Summer, was lauded by Jimmy Cooper, manager of the local Chamber, when he addressed the November meeting of the Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce yesterday noon at the Oasis Hotel.

More than a dozen Chambers were represented by the 33 association members attending. They heard Cooper explain the workings of the Western Institute. He said each session was sponsored by a large business organization, such as U. S. Steel, and Western Airlines, in coordination with the United States Chamber of Commerce and the Chambers of Commerce of seven western states.

COOPER SAID the registration fee of $25, and board and lodging for the week costing $52, made it nearly mandatory that Chambers who are able send their managers

New Speed Record Set by Campbell

BOULDER CITY, Nev. (AP)—Britain's Don Campbell, raced over a new world's speedboat record today at 216.2 miles per hour.

The son of the late speed king, Sir Malcolm Campbell, raced over a kilometer course between official timing devices to shatter his own mark of 202.32 set at Lake Ullswater, England, over three months ago, in the same jet-propelled boat, the Bluebird II.

On a slightly choppy course on Lake Mead, the Bluebird made two passes over the run, which measures 1/4 of a mile.

BARSTOW

Red-headed Barstow O'Brien, prospector of Mirage Lake, California, got mad at two roosters. They used to roost wrong end round on the seat of his truck, so he tied their legs together and took 'em for a thirty-five-mile ride to his mother's and turned them loose with her chickens. When he got home at day-break he was surprised to see his two roosters roosting on the rear axle, none the worse for their seventy-mile ride.

It was Shorty O'Brien that discovered gold when he was building a short cut to his shack, he calls his mine the O'Brien, O'Brien and O'Brien Short Cut Diggins.

"The Irish never change their names—they're too proud of them."

CARL LYKKEN TO EMCEE FOUNDERS DAY EVENTS

Carl Lykken, pioneer Palm Springs resident who operated the general store here for many years, will be master of ceremonies at the first annual Founders Day celebration at Tamarisk Park Sunday afternoon, it was announced today by Mrs. Frank Bennett, president of the Palm Springs Historical Society, who is general chairman.

Mrs. Lykken is chairman of the Historical Society's committee on early pioneers, and both she and her husband have been active in Village affairs for many years. Their store at one time was utilized as the center of the community, serving as a telephone and telegraph office, post office, bank and general congregating place, besides supplying all staples.

THE PROGRAM honoring the first settlers of Palm Springs will start at 12:30, and committee members working on arrangements report that both Winter and year-around residents are making plans to attend.

The program is being sponsored by the Historical Society, the City of Palm Springs and the Chamber of Commerce. All Villagers and visitors are invited to attend, to bring a box lunch and enter into the spirit of the day. Proper attire will be clothing worn when they first arrived in Palm Springs.

A HIGHLIGHT of the program will be the singing of the Palm Springs Civic Chorus under the direction of Harry Tomlinson.

Assisting Mrs. Bennett with the event are: Mrs. Burnham Bigelow, vice chairman; Mayor Florian Boyd and city council members, Francis Crocker, Earl Hough, Tom Kiley and Jimmy Cooper, reception committee; Mrs. Louise McCann, former mayor; City Manager R. W. Peterson and Cooper, arrangements; Mrs. Charles Farrell and Mrs. Herbert Burns, decorations.

William Dean, Frank Bogert and Ernie Dunlevie, special invitations; Police Chief August G. Kettmann, traffic; Mr. and Mrs. Newton Hotchkiss, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moorten, Mr. and Mrs. Trav Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kenaston, welcoming committee.

Palm Springs Attachment Brought Up at C of C Meet

By FRED C. WEIGEL
CATHEDRAL CITY—Annexation of this community to the City of Palm Springs was discussed last night at the Chamber of Commerce meeting held at the Town Hall.

Varied opinions were heard from those present, when Willard Hilley voiced the thought that "it was inevitable that Cathedral City, some day, will become part of Palm Springs."

Claude S. Cobb, president of the Chamber, said "the discussion was informal and spontaneous; and arose when the question of ways and means of raising funds came before the directors."

Downtown Trams in Three Months

A tram system, running on a 10 minute schedule, will start in the Village within three months if all plans go according to schedule and construction deadlines are met, E. A. Aldridge, the tram operator, announced today.

Aldridge, who owns Raffles restaurant on Palm Canyon Drive, returned yesterday from Los Angeles after making arrangements with his lawyers, the builders of the tram units, and his backers.

He said the colors have not yet been decided upon, and have been left up to the discretion of a Village artist, subject to approval by city council.

The route too is still in the tentative stage, and a complete plan has not yet been okayed by council pending finer definition by Aldridge.

The tram system, which is called Palm Springs Surrey Corporation, will be serviced by four units with a center open aisle and all seats facing the aisle so the seat-backs will aim toward the street. A fifth unit will be kept for reserve.

"MAYBE ANNEXATION is not as far away from reality as we may think," added Cobb, "but though there is a lot to be said for it, there are certainly a lot of folks who believe that it is not the solution."

It has been almost inevitable that the community, through the Chamber, be brought into open discussion of the subject because of so many common problems facing the two towns—Cathedral City and Palm Springs.

The two communities have been working together for quite some time to solve a big problem, that of a sanitary fill for disposal of all waste material. Recently the two towns have asked to jointly lease some Indian land for a site.

ANOTHER RECENT problem facing Cathedral City is a request for city mail delivery, which if approved by the postal authorities will change the local post office name to "Cathedral City Station, Palm Springs, California."

Palm Springs City Manager R. W. Peterson said today that he has been approached by people from this area wanting to know the methods of annexing to the resort city, and Peterson added that his office was open at all times to inquiries of this kind, but it is a matter which must originate from "their home town."

PAUL CLARK, past president and director of the local Chamber, not taking a stand pro or con to the question, expressed the feeling that though annexation does have its merits, "we don't want to get ourselves into the same kind of a situation that the desert communities find themselves in relationship to Riverside as a county seat."

An annexation of this community to Palm Springs will have its many problems, because of the strip of land which now divides the two towns.

In this manufacturing, industrial area are the communities of Tramview, Eagle Canyon and Sun-

U.S. Pledges to Press for German Unity

Dulles Pins Blame for Parley Failure Squarely on Soviet

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
GENEVA, (AP)—The United States pledged itself today to continue working for a united Germany despite the failure of the Big Four Conference.

The conference, which started in an optimistic mood October 27, wound up its last meeting at 6:35 p.m. deadlocked on all the issues brought before it in almost three weeks of fruitless talks.

In a speech to the closing session of the parley, U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles pinned the blame for failure squarely on the Soviet Union.

He said Moscow's attitude "will almost certainly impair the development of confidence which the summit meeting sought to foster." But he reiterated that there can be no "solid peace in Europe" without German reunification.

"THE GOVERNMENT and the people of the United States," Dulles said, "want to develop better relations with the Soviet Union."

He said he would report to President Eisenhower at once when he returned from Geneva.

He said the President then "will evaluate the conference result against the background of his vast knowledge and abhorrence of war, and his dedication to the cause of a just and durable peace."

Dulles addressed the 17th and last plenary session of the parley after the Big Four Foreign ministers agreed on their final communiqué.

This is a short two-paragraph document, merely recording the fact that the ministers met in Geneva and adding that they were reporting back to their respective governments with the recommendation that a decision on future negotiations should be made through diplomatic channels.

THE COMMUNIQUE did not set any time or place for a new Big Four conference.

At the same time, the United States, Britain and France issued a joint declaration predicting that the result of the conference will be a "bitter disappointment" for the German people.

The declaration charged the Soviets with guilt for blocking German unity and pledged that the three western powers would continue fighting for a reunified Germany.

Before the start of today's 17th and last plenary session of the conference, the West formally had rejected a last-minute Soviet proposal on European security. The West labeled it a move to wrest a propaganda victory from the conference.

WILD STORM RIPPING NATION'S MIDSECTION

A wild storm ripped up the nation's midsection, spewing tornadoes in three states, and pounded the Ohio River Valley with heavy thunderstorms today.

To the west, a long-delayed cold wave cracked out of the icy Northern Rockies and ran chilling fingers through the Northern Plains. Another storm center rolled out of Missouri into Illinois and Wisconsin.

AT LEAST ONE PERSON was killed and 21 were injured last night when tornadoes and devastating wind storms hit communities in Arkansas, Indiana, and Ohio.

Indiana got the worst buffeting when at least three twisters struck at Winchester, the south side of Indianapolis, and at Gentryville.

President Kept from Office by Foggy Weather

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press White Staff Writer
GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—A heavy wet fog blanketed this area today and prevented President Eisenhower from going to his office to cope with a mounting pile of official business.

Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks' scheduled visit with Mr. Eisenhower was postponed until tomorrow. So was the visit of Sherman Adams, the assistant to the President.

Both will come here tomorrow to see the President at 9:30 a.m. EST. They will be accompanied by Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes.

It will be the first time that the director of the budget will sit down personally with the President to discuss the fiscal 1957 budget.

THE FISCAL DISCUSSION will mark the opening of a series of conferences between the President and Hughes on the government's finances.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles is expected to arrive here tomorrow at about 4 p.m. EST to give the President a first-hand report on the Geneva Conference of foreign ministers.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told reporters that had flying conditions made it impossible for Weeks and Adams to fly here today in a special Aero Commander reserved for such shuttle flying of government officials between Washington and Gettysburg.

4 More Youths Missing in Area Where 3 Slain

CHICAGO, (AP)—Four 15-year-old boys were reported missing in the Chicago area today and police feared their disappearance might be linked to the murder of three other boys exactly one month ago.

The boys, all close friends, have not been seen since they left their homes in suburban Stickney at 3:30 p.m. CST yesterday.

Police said they feared the missing youths had met with foul play. Police planned to call in the aid of a special investigative unit which is searching for the killers of three young boys on Chicago's Northwest side last October 16.

The missing boys were identified as Stanley Mills, Philip Mascioni, Robert Hale, and William Lynch.

35 Fighting for Life on Burning Ship in Atlantic

NEW YORK (AP)—Some 35 crewmen are fighting fire for their lives aboard an Italian coaler pitching in high seas and nearly hidden by snow flurries near the Grand Banks, some 1200 miles northeast of New York, the Coast Guard reported today.

The collier Dea Mazzella sailed from Sidney, Nova Scotia, yesterday en route to Europe with her holds full of coal. At 5:52 a.m. EST its S.O.S. cleared all ocean broadcast channels. The master reported explosions in No. 1 and No. 2 holds. Later messages, picked up and relayed from the Coast Guard cutter Coos Bay on mid-ocean weather station, reported the ship afire with its cargo.

Shortly after 11 a.m. a rescue plane relayed from the ship word that fire had been extinguished in one hold and brought under control in the other. The master of the stricken Dea Mazzella said the still-burning hold could not be covered because "all hatch beams were lost in explosion." He said he would make for a Newfoundland or American port.

Emergency Cited in Plea for Weapons

State Department Announces Request to be Considered

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Israel today appealed to the United States for quick delivery of bargain-priced arms to defend itself in what it called a "moment of great national emergency."

The State Department announced that the request would be considered "by the various agencies of the U.S. government" in the light of the 1950 declaration in which this country pledged its opposition to any aggression in the Palestine area. Beyond this, the department made no commitment.

Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban handed a list of the defense weapons it wants to Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover, Jr., in an hour-long meeting. He asked the United States to sell the arms on "the most lenient price and credit" terms.

Eban said Israel also is seeking weapons from other friendly countries to overcome an "alarming vulnerability" created by Egypt's purchase of weapons from Communist Czechoslovakia.

He refused to say exactly what weapons Israel requested or how much they would cost. But under questioning he said Israel prepared its request on the assumption that Egypt is receiving submarines, jet planes, and similar modern weapons.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER appealed anew Tuesday night to Israel and the Arab states to settle their border disputes. He repeated that the United States would be willing to join in a formal treaty to guarantee the disputed borders if the two nations would agree on a boundary and stop their fighting.

Israel's appeal for additional U.S. arms was expected to be presented formally to the State Department today by Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban. The department has said it would consider Israel's request.

DULLES, who has spent much of his time at Geneva talking with Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov and others about the Middle East, will report immediately on those conversations to Mr. Eisenhower.

The new review of Middle Eastern policy is certain to go through the National Security Council, the nation's top policy-making body. The council is scheduled to meet with the President next week.

Wilson told newsmen he expects defense spending to continue at about the present rate, approximately 34 1/2 million dollars a year, and perhaps go a little higher because of increased labor and material costs.

STEVENSON AGAINST FIELD PRESAGES FIGHT

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, (AP) — It's Adlai E. Stevenson against the field now in a long, hard race.

The several Democrats who also aspire to the presidential nomination next year must either fold or stop him. The man whom President Eisenhower liked in 1952 by a score of 442 electoral votes to 89 is the acknowledged front runner among Democrats at this moment. But at this moment Stevenson is the only entry in the field.

Eight full months of political maneuvering lie ahead before the month of the major party nominating conventions. There are politicians who will concede readily that Stevenson has a long lead today but who predict trouble in the months to come if the other hopefuls join to stop him.

Stevenson's announcement in Chicago Tuesday that he would seek next year's Democratic presidential nomination long had been foreseen. Chief interest centered on the public reaction of key party figures to his open candidacy.

There was a remarkable lot of them who heard the news with friendly interest but without committing themselves to Stevenson's nomination. Former President Truman had no comment.

Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, a dark horse, himself, jockeyed for position.

eyed by Tammy boss Carmine DeSapio, said nothing which would prevent an all-out convention fight for his own nomination.

Tennessee's Sen. Estes Kefauver observed that Stevenson's "I-will" opened to him the opportunity to contest a lot of presidential primaries. Kefauver's own presidential announcement is expected in December.

Stevenson said nothing of primaries Tuesday. But Chicago writers report he will enter at least four—Pennsylvania, Minnesota, California and Florida. That excludes New Hampshire where Kefauver earned his giant-killer reputation in 1952 by defeating Mr. Truman in a presidential preference vote. Kefauver is sure next year to go back to New Hampshire which holds the first of scores of primaries. The date is March 13.

KEFAUVER SPLIT Pennsylvania with Stevenson in 1952 and divided Florida with Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia. He scored all real opposition out of California and won the big delegate slate. Kefauver wasn't on the Minnesota ballot but polled nearly 20,000 write-in votes, a solid showing.

The various strategies now are evident: Kefauver to enter as many primaries as possible; Harriman to avoid all primary contests; Stevenson to enter a select few. Kefauver, for example, might not want to challenge Stevenson in Minnesota next year, a March 20 primary. He was up against only a favorite son in 1952, Sen. Hubert Humphrey.

The Minnesota Democratic organization is now solidly pledged to Stevenson. But Kefauver well might decide to make it a contest in California on June 5. His primary achievements made Kefauver top man in the first two ballots of the 1952 convention which finally switched to Stevenson on the third. Stevenson's over-all strategy is as evident as his greatest problem. The strategy is to build up a quick, fire-ball pre-convention campaign calculated to bluff all others out of the contest.

His greatest problem is that of all who reach the top of a greased pole—which is, to stay there.

Jil Jarmyn Not to Press Charge

HOLLYWOOD, (AP) — Blonde actress Jil Jarmyn has withdrawn a request for a battery complaint against film star Susan Hayward which resulted from a brawl in the bedroom of actor Don Barry's apartment.

The young actress signed a statement yesterday saying, "I hereby withdraw my request for a complaint... at this time." She said she cancelled her action because "I've been through a humiliating experience and I want to forget it."

The blonde film player had accused her red-haired rival of hitting her with a hair brush, knocking her against a coffee table and threatening her with a lit cigarette.

Need $60 Million on Tahoe Roads

SACRAMENTO, (AP) — California needs to spend $60,000,000 on highway construction on U.S. 40 and in the Lake Tahoe area for the 11 days of the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, according to a report issued today.

The report was submitted by the state Division of Highways to the state Highway Commission. The commission took no action on the report, but one member, James A. Guthrie, San Bernardino, said the problems were "tremendous."

The report estimated that 50,000 to 100,000 persons would attend the Olympics in 20,000 automobiles. John Legarra, who prepared the report, pointed out that much of the construction would be permanent, such as the four-laning of U.S. 40, a project planned by the state anyway. But the awarding of the Winter Olympics to California would mean getting the work underway by 1958, he said.

to the Institute do so for each of the three years.

He also said that after the three-year basic course is completed, a seminar is held during the same periods which covers more advanced Chamber theories. One of these, Cooper said, was of great interest to him. He hopes to be able to absorb all they can teach him on the subject: "How to be a Chamber of Commerce executive and live."

COOPER WAS THEN awarded a diploma for the completion of his first year of study by George C. Gerwing, secretary of the Riverside County Board of Trade, who is also on the Western Institute board.

Prior to Cooper's speech, an appeal was made to citizens of Riverside county to attend a California water problems meeting and luncheon Saturday at the National Orange Show grounds in San Bernardino starting at 10 a.m. and continuing through a $2-a-plate lunch.

A PANEL OF STATE legislators, each the chairman of a legislative committee, will speak on the problem of water shortage in California and its remedy.

A SERVICE STATION operator in Cathedral City mentioned another factor which he believes will support annexation. It has to do with the recognized addresses of places such as Thunderbird, Tamarisk, and Desert Air Hotel, who list their addresses as "Palm Springs, California." "I have a lot of people come into my station," he said, "and they have a hard time understanding that they have to go through Cathedral City to get to Thunderbird Country Club, Palm Springs, California." This informal and spontaneous discussion of annexation by this community to the City of Palm Springs, may be the history making event of 1955 in the Desert Empire.

Stevenson to Start Drive in Minnesota Primaries

CHICAGO, (AP) — Adlai Stevenson today announced he is starting his campaign for the presidency by entering the Minnesota presidential primary.

Stevenson appointed two professional political figures to take charge of his effort to win the Democratic nomination at the Chicago Convention next summer. At a news conference Stevenson said his decision, announced yesterday, to run again for President was made without any consideration of the effect of President Eisenhower's illness.

"It was largely made in the early part of this past summer after getting evidence of interest in my candidacy, and the decision was confirmed around September 1 after conferring with my children," Stevenson said.

Appointed as Stevenson's pre-convention campaign manager was James A. Finnegan, secretary of state in Pennsylvania. As executive director for Finnegan, Stevenson named Hyman B. Raskin, of Chicago, a former member of the Democratic National Committee and a law partner of former National Democratic Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell.

Stevenson also said that two leaders in his 1952 campaign would be active this time. He named Wilson Wyatt of Louisville, Ky., who was his personal manager in 1952 and Mitchell.

The decision to enter the Minnesota primary was made to meet the time requirements of Minnesota laws, Stevenson said.

Knight Believes Idaho Governor Good Keynote

BOISE, (AP) — Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California said yesterday Idaho's Gov. Robert E. Smylie would make a "splendid choice" for keynote speaker at the 1955 Republican convention in San Francisco.

In a press conference at the Idaho Statehouse, the California chief executive said he would be "heartily in favor of Gov. Smylie as keynote speaker" and added he thought it would be "highly in good taste" if the speaker came from the West.

The California governor, who has been mentioned as a presidential possibility if President Eisenhower decides not to run in '56, parried reporters' questions about White House potential among Republicans.

"I am not a candidate for President," he said flatly. Asked about the possibility of Chief Justice Earl Warren throwing his hat in the ring, Knight said, "He (Warren) has said repeatedly he could not. I served for eight years under Mr. Warren as lieutenant governor and I learned he is not given to casual and off-hand statements."

"Of course one cannot say what would happen if a tremendous draft were levied against the former governor and now Chief Justice," Knight added.

Zellerbach Says Economic Future of Nation Bright

WASHINGTON, (AP) — James D. Zellerbach, new chairman of the Committee for Economic Development, said today he is optimistic about the nation's economic future.

He said the economy is threatened by neither inflation nor deflation but that "we are in something of an in-between situation." But Zellerbach said there are two phases of the economy which need special attention and that the CED is studying them now—falling farm prices and the need for expanded and improved highways.

CED is a private economic research organization of business and education leaders. Its reports are widely circulated in government circles.

Zellerbach, 68, of San Francisco, is president of Crown Zellerbach Corporation.

RABAT, Morocco, (AP) — Sultan Sidi Mohammed Ben Youssef came back to Morocco today from two years in French-enforced exile and was greeted by thousands of wildly cheering Moroccans.

The four engines of the Sultan's DC6 airliner were drowned out by the roar of acclaim from the huge crowd massed at the airport when the plane touched down.

... our patrons from Coast to Coast have already been notified that we have moved our A-A Orthopedic Laboratory and Shoe Clinic from Beverly Hills to Palm Springs into our building. What does it mean to you? Nothing... if you have normal, healthy feet. But... if you suffer from tired, aching, burning feet and seek immediate relief, then... a visit to our laboratory may change your entire attitude, just as it did to thousands of sufferers since we opened our doors in 1913.

... our establishment consists of two departments. 1. a laboratory specializing in orthopedics, such as Foot Relief, Arch Supports, Shoe Corrections, Doctors' Shoe Prescriptions, etc. 2. a Shoe Clinic, where our men at the bench are not cobblers, but genuine shoe craftsmen. So... whether your shoes need heels, soles or other operations... from a stitch to a full rebuilding job... we'll do it our way. You'll then see the difference and feel the difference.

Holiday Mailing Deadlines Announced by Post Office

Mail sent out of the continental U.S. to the country will have to be posted before the Thanksgiving weekend, 10 days from today, or it will not reach its destination in time to be opened for Christmas.

There are many facets to the mailing deadline problem, and persons in doubt should take their packages to the Post Office to be sure of arrival time. Size and weight are governing factors.

Mail sent overseas, either in the Pacific area or Europe, will take a minimum of a month for delivery. Packages sent by surface means should be sent before the weekend, but air mail will get packages delivered out of the U.S. about a month.

Mail sent overseas, either in the Pacific area or Europe, will take a minimum of a month for delivery. Packages sent by surface means should be sent before the weekend, but air mail will get packages delivered out of the U.S. about a month.

All mail, air and surface, sent to Hawaii, Alaska or Puerto Rico takes about five days less to arrive because there is no delay caused by customs inspection. Civilian mail overseas-bound is not governed as to size and weight when sent air mail, in a general way. The regulations concerning that type of air mail is peculiar to the individual country to which the package is sent. Each is different, and the Post Office has a 300 page book concerning the regulations for each overseas country.

Mail sent from the Village to the east coast should be posted before December 10, and when addressed to west of the Mississippi, it should be sent before December 15.

Two in One

MANCHESTER, Conn. — The numbers five and eight were lucky for amateur golfer Hal Giglio, 32, of Windsor Locks. Using a five-iron on the fifth hole at Manchester Country Club, Giglio scored his first hole-in-one in 14 years of playing golf. Then on the eighth, he switched to an eight iron and dropped his second hole-in-one.

New Patrolman Starts Training

The first of two new patrolmen who will work through the Winter season started police training Saturday. He is Darwin Mullins, 27, formerly of Riverside.

Mullins is single, and had worked in San Bernardino for the California Department of Highways. The exact length of his employment period is not known. Dick Harris is scheduled to start Thursday.

The two vacancies were created when City Council approved City Manager Robert W. Peterson's recommendation that Chief Kettmann's force needed extra personnel because of the increased tourist trade.

County Traffic Fatalities Up 17

Riverside county traffic fatalities have increased 17 in the first nine months of 1955, according to records of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Traffic fatalities through September of 1955 were 111, compared to 94 in a similar period last year. Total number of deaths in the 13 Southland counties were 1421, a 14 per cent increase over last year's nine month total.

Students to Vacation Two Days While Teachers Study

While students enrolled in all schools of the Palm Springs Unified School District are enjoying two holidays away from classes this week, their teachers will be attending teachers' institute on Thursday and Friday.

Sponsored annually by the Riverside County department of education, sessions for the eastern half of this year's institute will be held at Coachella Valley Union high school.

Icy Retort

MUNCIE, Ind. — A woman driver rolled down a car window to tell the truck driver in the adjoining lane his truck was on fire and smoke was pouring from the back. "Dry ice, lady," was his explanation.

Dr. Arthur Corey, executive secretary of the California Teachers' Association, will present the keynote address, "The Role of the Teacher in Education for World Understanding" at the opening meeting at 9 a.m., Friday.

Other featured speakers scheduled for the two-day institute include Jacqueline Cochran, who will discuss education for world understanding from the standpoint of personal experiences gained on her recent trip to Europe and Africa, and Mrs. Billie Davis, authoress of "The Hobo Kid," and a former student at Coachella Valley Union High School.

To give teachers practical information, the Riverside County office has arranged teaching clinics in the basic skill subjects. These will be in the charge of specialists who will be available for assistance in discussing problems arising from reading, spelling and other fundamental subjects.

Panel discussions based on the theme, "We Provide for Better School-Community Understanding," will also include topics based on skill subjects as well as problems relating to administration. Among those listed for consideration are:

"Is Johnny Really Learning to Read?", "How Shall We Report Pupil Progress to Parents?", "How Shall We Group Pupils for Better Learning?", and "Why Is There a Teacher Shortage?"

Woman's Clubs Launch Battle on Salacious Books

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The General Federation of Women's Clubs has asked its one million members to start a nationwide campaign against "salacious and indecent" magazines, including the "gossip-blackmail type."

A four-point "blueprint for action" against the publications is spelled out in the current issue of GFWC's "Clubwoman" magazine.

The "blueprint for action" against smut magazines recommends adoption of a national code of ethics by magazine publishers, now in the discussion stage, and enactment of federal legislation prohibiting the shipment of pornographic material "not only by mail and common carrier, but by any means."

Oil Executives Confer in Village

Four executives of the California Company, a subsidiary of Standard Oil of California, arrived by private company plane from New Orleans Sunday to hold a four-day business conference at the new La Paz Hotel.

Attending the sessions are: H. C. Teasdale, president; L. I. Brown, vice president of exploration; Dee Davis, secretary-treasurer, and A. L. Makle.

Study of History Proves Profitable

NEW YORK, (AP) — A native of Czechoslovakia who became an expert in American history while studying for his citizenship examinations, won $16,000 on a television program last night by answering questions about U.S. land purchases.

Steven Frolich, a 39-year-old seed salesman from Princeton, N.J., said he would like to use any money he wins on the CBS television program "The $64,000 Question," to help bring displaced persons to this country.

Florida Citrus Men See Threat in Rule

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — A spokesman for the citrus industry said today that the Food and Drug Administration's ban on artificial food dyes now used to color oranges could seriously affect Florida's economy.

The bulk of Florida's early oranges are dyed to give them a true orange color, which helps greatly in marketing them as fresh fruit.

California, the other major orange producing state, does not have to use dye in the quantities used in Florida. The climate in California is much more favorable for producing true orange color in ripe fruit.

NEW PRESIDENT of the Aviation Distributors and Manufacturers Association, Robert Northington, left, accepts gavel from predecessor Jim Riddle as wives exchange looks of congratulations. The festivities last night at El Mirador, which culminated three days of group discussion and social meetings, were disrupted momentarily when the guest of honor, Actor Paul Kelly, was forced to cancel his appearance and unable to accept his award. Seems the picket line marching in front of the resort hotel registered a complaint and Kelly was told by his guild in Hollywood that he would have to pay $1000 before accepting the award in the hotel dining room. ADMA has membership of 108 manufacturers and 41 distributors of aircraft replacement parts. More than 250 conferees dined last night prior to leaving for their homes in every section of the country today.

Toastmasters Founder to be Honored Nov. 17

Dr. Ralph Smedley, of Santa Ana, founder of Toastmasters, will preside at the induction of 10 new members into the Palm Springs Club at a dinner meeting at the Ranch Club Thursday evening, starting at 6:45 p.m.

Dr. Smedley, who will be honored at the meeting, will also address the local group.

In charge of events for the evening are: Fred Nitchy, Toastmaster of the evening; Clarence Brechlin, table topics master; Sam Black, grammarian; Paul Payne, evaluator; Dr. Herbert Winkler, Dr. John Nevins, Henry Cleary and Bert Mennell, speakers. Joe DeFrancis will deliver the invocation. All members are urged to attend.

Radio Program to Commend Police Thursday

Mutual Broadcasting Company, through its radio program, Official Detective, will honor Police Chief August G. Kettmann and the local Police department Thursday night for the quick capture of Robert Kenneth and Michael Elizabeth Miers, suspects in the slaying and robbery of Donald E. "Dutch" Graham, city building inspector.

The case history will not be broadcast, but a brief resume of events will be given near the close of the nationwide broadcast.

Kettman, in recognition of the capture, will receive a gold watch and a citation, with the presentation to be made locally by Ed England of Radio Station KXFM in San Bernardino.

Illinois voters have favored Republican candidates in eight of the past 14 presidential elections.

Idyllwild C of C Asks State for Additional Parks

Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce has requested of the California State Park Commission that a joint study be made of the need for additional recreation facilities in the mountain resort area.

J. W. Gifford, president, pledged the whole-hearted cooperation of the Chamber in the matter.

The Chamber, in its request, pointed out that Idyllwild is "one of the largest and most accessible wilderness areas in the United States," which attracts thousands of people each year. It cited that 375,000 automobiles visited the area in 1952, and 560,755 in 1954, with the 1955 figure not yet available.

Registrations in the Riverside county camp grounds increased from a total of 16,238 people in 1952 to a total of more than 25,000 for the first nine months of 1955. The original camp ground of 20 acres was increased to 39½ acres in 1954, and even with the enlarged facility, as many as 900 campers above the normal rated capacity of the park were recorded.

The State Park Camp ground has been increased from 28 unit camp-sites to 33, and as many as 103 cars have been turned away in a single day.

More than 88,000 people in 1954 spent an average of one week per person in the Idyllwild recreational areas, the Chamber said, and the 1955 figures are expected to show an increase.

In view of the need for such facilities, the Chamber is requesting the study and action, Gifford said.

Hold Ground Breaking Party for the Williams' New Home

An architect is always so busy planning houses for everyone else that his own gets postponed, but this week the Stewart Williams family broke ground for their new house.

Construction started the next day and they expect to be into their home by late Spring. It will be a four bedroom house with an indoor garden livingroom and many unusual features that have not been divulged yet.

On Sunday afternoon the Williams invited a group of friends to meet at their lot, which is in the 1200 block on Paseo El Mirador next to the Culver Nichols' house.

Many of the guests brought gag gifts, but the best was the arrival of Joe Leonard's crane which carefully lowered a box containing a magnum of champagne. This was arranged by the office staff of the architectural firm of Williams, Williams and Williams. Barbecued hamburgers were served, following the ground breaking.

Among their guests were the Fred Ingrams, Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Staley, Mr. and Mrs. William Edris, Bud and Vic Graves, the John Clarks, Newton Hotchkisses, Earl Cordreys, Paul Summers, Burnham Bigelows, Culver and Sally Nichols, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell, and the Arnold Rumwells.

SPIKE HEELS CALLED HAZARD IN DRIVING

NEW YORK (UP) — Spike heels have tripped many a woman driver into an automobile accident.

The Leather Industries of America, quoting safety officials on the high-heeled hazard warns that the best footwear for the lady motorist is a "driving" shoe—with a heel no higher than 1½ inches. The organization says high heels are hazardous because the shoe slips off the pedal, often with disastrous results when braking or using the clutch. Taking your shoes off may rest you on a long trip, but stockinged feet are just about as hazardous as spike heels.

SWEATER SYNTHETICS NEED SPECIAL CARE

MADISON, Wis. — (UP) The various synthetics now used for making sweaters require special care, says Gladys Meloeche, clothing specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

These fibres are blended with wool "worsted" rayon and cashmere or used by themselves. Each brings special qualities to the garment.

Acrylics feel soft, washes easily, dries quickly and snaps back to shape. Moths and mildew won't affect it during summer months.

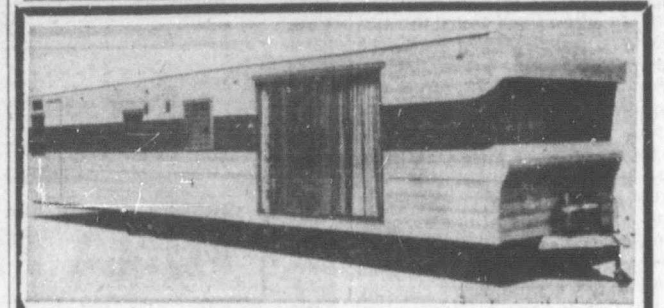

Orlon washes easily, also, but special care is needed while the sweater is wet or it will stretch out of shape. Tightly twisted orlon yarn is apt to form little balls of fiber on the surface.

Vicars blended with either wool or nylon gives extra strength, she said. The nylon blend will resist moths but the usual moth protection is needed with a vicars-wool combination.

For '56 New Sweep-ahead styling New Sizzle to match

WHAT YOU SEE pictured here is Buick for 1956—and from the gleam of that "V" grille to the sassy slant of the tail fins, you can see it has no equal for gorgeous good looks.

But what you see from the curb is fully matched by what you feel at the wheel—and that's gospel. For this Buick gets its zoom from a mighty 322-cubic-inch V8 engine lofted to a new record high in power and compression—and from a spectacular new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

What's new in the '56 Dynaflo is this: in the first inch of pedal travel—and not with wide-open throttle—your Buick moves from standstill to cruise with silk-smooth, instant and certain getaway.

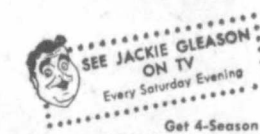

But comes a sudden need, for safety-surge action to get out of a tight spot—and you floor the pedal to switch the pitch of this airplane-inspired transmission. Instantly and smoothly, you're at full-power acceleration—a thrill beyond words.

There's a lot more we could tell you about these great new Buicks—about brilliant new interiors, a superb new ride with a safer "sense of direction," and new safety features everywhere you look.

But the best way to get the whole story of the best Buick yet is right at the wheel of one of these '56 beauties. So drop in this week and do just that.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Northerners Visiting at Oasis

In Palm Springs for one of their many visits during the season are Mr. and Mrs. Willard Abel (he's general manager of the Sir Francis Drake hotel and a vice president of Western Hotels, Inc.). Accompanying them on this trip is Mrs. Edward DeGolia. All are staying at Hotel the Oasis.

The Abels' 19-year-old son, David, is a concert violinist having won unanimous acclaim at his Town Hall debut last season. The New York press gave him enthusiastic reviews. He has given numerous Easter recitals, and has appeared in a dozen concerts with the San Francisco and Boston symphonies.

He first played as a guest under the direction of Kurt Adler, artistic director of San Francisco Opera Company, and since has appeared with the Boston Pops orchestra, directed by Arthur Fiedler. His San Francisco appearances set for next year are February 2, 3 and 4 with the San Francisco Symphony, and he will be heard there with the Celebrity Concert series in Veterans Auditorium on April 24.

During the Abels' visit to Palm Springs their son appeared with the Spokane, Wash., Symphony and the press described his violin mastery as "capturing sheer beauty of the difficult Brahms Concerto." They went on to say "David Abel completely sold his near-capacity audience on the violin's most difficult concerto, the Brahms D Major." The writer said "Spokane is fortunate to have heard the young artist on the threshold of what promises to be a brilliant career."

It is hoped that next year his concert tour will bring him to Southern California so that the many violin lovers might hear his mastery and musicianship. Mr. and Mrs. Abel will return to the Oasis hotel later in the season, and hope to bring David for a rest after his strenuous concert work.

Fraternity Dinner

Alpha Gamma Nu of the University of Redlands held their fall informal dinner dance at the Palm Springs Biltmore with thirty-five young couples here for the party.

Officers of this fraternity and their dates were Kent Jennings, Holly Phillips, Bill Bruns, Barbara Dodge, Bill Colton, Carolyn Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Icanberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Nolan of Los Angeles chose Palm Springs as the grand finale to a three week vacation just completed. The Nolans visited Florida, Havana, Jamaica, Louisiana, Chicago, Las Vegas and Ensenada, making the trip by air. While here they visited with Mrs. Nolan's sister, Jean Alcala, and family.

Mrs. Elaine Elser of 1189 Tamarisk Road is back in the Village and has reopened her home. She came here from New Jersey where she visited with her son, who is a Colonel in the Army stationed at Fort Monmouth.

Relatives Meet Unexpectedly

It was a happy meeting for Norbert Malecha when he stepped off the bus and decided to get a sandwich at the Amado Cafe for there, unbeknown to him, was his uncle Bob Rech, owner of the place.

Norbert Malecha is from Lonsdale, Minnesota and now with the Army is stationed at Camp Irwin near Barstow. He came to Palm Springs to visit with his uncle and aunt whom he had not seen for many years.

EDITOR'S CORNER

by Oliver B. Jaynes

FOOD-BY-MAIL, TOO! — A reader suggests that in writing the "Gadgets by Mail" column I overlooked another mail order craze — food specialties by mail. And she is so right. These mouth-watering offers such as strawberry preserves cooked in open iron kettles are gaining on us every year.

Some of these so-called gourmet's delights are positively tempting, sometimes disappointing and always very expensive. Of course, hams that "are accustomed to only the most gracious homes" would be rather costly—especially if they had been "tended by hand through each unhurried step." You can get maple syrup from Vermont, Dutch fruitcakes from Pennsylvania, savory smokehouse samples from Iowa, Royal Rievera pears from Oregon's Rogue River Valley and farm sausage from Tennessee. These ambrosial delights are made famous by the romance of the region from which they come.

If you want to go in for these toothsome foods regularly you can get some of them sent you throughout the year — such as the "fruit-of-the-month club" which mails your favorites of the season. The food-by-mail items come in all sorts of containers from sewing baskets to ice buckets that you will just hate to throw away.

Be on the look out — someone may send you a real, live lobster by mail for Christmas!

No, I am not accepting orders. And no charges or C.O.D.'s please!

ANOTHER READER (that's two this week — writes that with all my mail-order catalogs I missed an item that tops them all. It is a device which enables a man and wife to both smoke in bed safely — from the same cigarette! That's absolutely right. It works something like the Turkish pipe-smoker, with a tube to each addict from a stand which holds one coffin nail (plain or filter tip). $3.95 — bachelor's model for less. Oh, my, what next?

Let's just be sensible and do our shopping in Palm Springs where one can find excellent food, smart clothes and interesting items from all over the world.

OTHER EDITORS

Express their views

Great Falls, Mont., Leader — "Those who invented the absurd assertion . . . a few years ago that 'the national debt doesn't matter because we owe it to ourselves' should ponder these figures, says the Los Angeles Times. They mean that every man, woman and child in the United States paid out $42.18 just for the carrying charge on the debt, which does not reduce the debt itself. And interest rates are rising so that per capita interest charges in the future will be more."

Sentinel (Okla.) Leader — One of the most important parts of any newspaper is the editorial page or in some cases, editorial column. This page, which is theoretically the only page in the paper where the editor may express opinion was in olden times the heart of the newspaper. People looked forward to each issue to see what the editor would be attacking or making a strong verbal for. In the present day newspaper the primary function of the newspaper is the gathering and presentation of factual news, and while editorials still have a vital part, they are secondary.

Westbrook (Minn.) Sentinel — We don't want to put ideas into your heads, but a farmer over near Marshall has a sign on his gate: "We shoot every tenth salesman . . . the 9th one just left!" And to make it more impressive, he has dug a shallow grave nearby and has a large field stone for a monument. Says it really works!

Letters to The Desert Sun

Editor,
The Desert Sun,
Palm Springs, California.

It is with great appreciation that the Executive Committee of the American Cancer Society thanks you and the many others who were instrumental in making the mass showings of the "Breast Self-Examination" film in Riverside county, so successful. These presentations were the first ever attempted on such a wide scale in California and it is due to your cooperation that the project was accepted so widely in this area.

Without the doctors, the various chairmen, committee members, the hostesses, the theater managers and projectionists, the nursery and transportation assistants we could not have had such a response all over our district. We are already having many calls for additional showings of the film.

You will be interested in knowing that there were 25 showings in the county, in addition to as many more in the local schools, with a total attendance of 8298 throughout the county. Already our own film is scheduled for 19 more showings. This area has been very receptive of the film and as a result, many more women are aware of the need for early detection of any cancerous condition.

We are glad to share with you our satisfaction of a job well done and again, we say "thank you" for your fine assistance.

Sincerely yours,
Joseph S. Long,
President,
Riverside County Branch.

THE MODERN AGE
The twins, five years old, had knelt for bedtime prayers. Little Clara prayed first, concluding: "Amen. Goodnight. God. And now stay tuned for Clarence." — Jack Kille.

The officer in charge asked the Navy recruit whether or not he had ever been in service prior to his present enlistment. "Yes, sir," replied the man. "I was on submarine duty and they kicked me out."

"Kicked you out? What for?"
"Well, you see, sir, I was used to sleeping with the windows open." — Bona Venture.

THANKSGIVING

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By FRED C. WEIGEL

It seems that when one writes this column it is necessary that they start off with a poem or verse or prose, which I might add, nobody ever told me about, I just took it for granted. So if there is a rule or something, that will have me on the carpet—but, I guess I can take it once.

Covering the Desert Empire, I usually use this column to mention people, places and things that go on in the Empire, and the more I write the column, the more I enjoy doing it. So, I might as well get started.

THE CATHEDRAL CITY LIONS Club put on a successful benefit dinner Saturday night, and I haven't talked with a person who didn't think it was really wonderful. On top of the success of the dinner, the organization did receive a little profit to go toward their club projects. It is wonderful to see the people in a community like this turn out to support their local organizations.

In the Shadow Mountain Club in Palm Desert, Skip Lawson said that she is leaving the club this week and going to Las Vegas to do publicity for the Sands Hotel. She is going to be greatly missed at SMC because she did a good job for them.

There is a funny story coming out of Palm Desert today, about the "breakout" at Angelo's. It seems that a customer was locked in the restaurant after closing and cut his way through a screen to get out. Law enforcement officers are having a terrific time these days with something new facing them every day.

OVER NEAR Desert Hot Springs, Kim Novak, who just completed her role in "Picnic," soon to be released, is taking a desert vacation and staying at B-Bar-H Ranch. Actually, I think she is one of the most photographed girls in Hollywood today.

Speaking of photography, Bob Nims, The Desert Sun staff photographer, said that since The Sun went daily he has shot or processed over 1000 sheets of film and better than 80 per cent of these pictures have appeared in the daily Sun.

Anyone who was around the Palm Springs Polo Grounds last weekend saw a sight that is very seldom seen anywhere. Hundreds of trailers were parked in the area, some for show by manufacturers, some for living quarters, and even a special trailer as an office for the rally and press room. A driver on Highway 111 had the feeling of "being converged on" by the mobile homes as the many trailers entered the Village to take part in the biggest rally ever held. Herb Richardson, who handled the job of managing the rally has been many times rewarded by the thanks of the many members of the Desert Empire trailer parks.

PALM FOR SERVICE This week goes to Robert J. Cordes, president of the Cathedral City Lions club for the job that was done on the benefit dinner. He is owner of Cordes floor covering concern, and takes a very active part in all Cathedral City organizations.

Although this column is a day early this week, I will see you again next week—Thursday.

LIBRARY NOTES

Dear Handy,

A whole year has gone by since my first letter to you from the Welwood Murray Memorial Library. Once again we are head over heels in the Fall spate of activity: people returning, new books coming into the library (there were more books published in October, 1955, than during any previous October since the post war decade).

Yes, and Gayle Burns has done it again with a lovely asymmetrical arrangement of root and dried dock in the patio window, the orange of the wall lantana making a flaming background.

November brings with it again National Book Week with this year's slogan "Let's Read More." Here in Palm Springs that is exactly what's happening. For the year from October, 1954, through September, 1955, there was a circulation figure of 108,405, representing an increase of 14 per cent over that of the previous year: 95,867. No wonder, is it, Handy, that we are all so happy about the new branch library which will open in the near future at 1146 South Palm Canyon Drive?

The branch, which will also house the Palm Springs Historical Society, will accommodate 2500 volumes, including a fine selection of children's books. Library users who read mystery stories, westerns or science fiction will probably be ecstatic to learn that books in these categories will all be different from those at the main library. And all of those new books which are always so hard to come by will be duplicated at the branch.

Billie Lu Floan will be in charge of the South Palm Canyon library and she has been at work all Summer, selecting and accessioning the new material. Mrs. Floan has been a member of the library staff since 1943, except for three years during which time her two daughters were born. Hers will be a familiar face when things get under way in the new venture.

All kinds of exciting things seem to be happening in the library this year and just to disprove that old misconception about librarians being old maids, another member of the staff, Agnes Andrews, has just announced her engagement. This accounts for the bright pink cloud hovering above the library door!

The other day in L. D. Day's Editor-At-Large column, offered by Doubleday and Company as a tribute to the American Library Association, I found this commentary on the library:

"A library is a storehouse of ideas, a repository of all that is best in our country and our civilization. The library is the true arsenal of democracy, where are kept the weapons of the mind and spirit, without which no war, hot or cold, can be finally won."

Maybe the tacit assumption that this is true is what makes working in a library one of the most rewarding jobs on earth.

Affectionately,
Betty.

Comedian Joey Adams took a lot of kidding when a radio show was done about his new book, "Strictly for Laughs." Joe E. Lewis, asked by Ray Heatherton how long he'd known Joey, replied, "Oh, I've known Joey when he was alive." Another character who'd been lavishly praising Joey's book asked Heatherton, "By the way, what did he say in the dedication? I didn't get that far in it." Joe E. Lewis, incidentally, gave Toots Shor some advice on making a speech: "Just brush up on your ignorance."

HOLLYWOOD — Rock Hudson knows his rocks. His father, Roy Scherer, used to run a jewelry store in Olney, Ill. Rock paid $750 for the two-karat-85-point diamond baguette wedding band he gave Phyllis. NEW YORK — The McGuire Sisters, three little girls from Miami, Ohio, are the town's newest nighttime sensations. Their act at the Copacabana is smart, pretty, entertaining and oh, so different—it says something nice about Godfrey.

Eddie Fisher, Jan Murray, Sophie Tucker, Peter Donald and Frank Parker applauded the three sisters in their white rhinestone bedecked gowns. Comedian Morty Gunty on the same show is sure to be a star soon, too. He mentioned, for example, that when he got married his wife wanted him to give her a joint bank account, and he did.

"It had just two names on it," he said, "her married name and her maiden name."

I liked his story about a school teacher who pulled and hauled and tugged to get a little boy's galoshes on. The boy said, "I hate to disappoint you, teacher, but those aren't my galoshes." The teacher perspired, pulled and tugged and got them off. "They're my sister's," the little boy said. "She let me wear them today."

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has been advised that there is one key development which is virtually certain to lead to full-scale war in the inflamed Middle East.

This ominous tell-tale factor is Egypt's construction of jet fighter fields.

Allied military authorities, intently watching this crucial danger signal, are convinced that if and when Egypt starts building jet bases, then the long-threatened Arab-Israel war is inevitable.

Pentagon experts have given the President the following reasons for this worried viewpoint:

Egypt now has no jet fighters, nor fields adequate for handling them. But Russia has agreed to supply Egypt with 150 MIG-15 jet fighters, and more than 1,000 hand-picked Egyptian youths have arrived in Russia to be trained as jet pilots and technicians.

Israel has a small number of British Meteor jets, and fields from which they can operate. The Meteor is markedly inferior to the MIG-15. The British jet was tested during the Korean war, and proved inadequate against the Soviet plane. The Meteor was withdrawn from combat, and British pilots were equipped with U.S. jets. Recently the RAF began receiving the Meteor's replacement.

But for the present, Israel's possession of these jets and the pilots to fly them is her margin of air superiority over both Egypt and the other Arab countries.

This is the controlling deterrent to the outbreak of full-scale war between them.

warning they cannot permit the Arabs to gain air superiority, and are prepared to "resort to extreme measures," if necessary, to prevent it.

This is why the President denounced Russia's shipping arms to the Arabs, and sternly called on all the belligerents to keep the peace.

WHAT THEY'VE GOT — U. S. military authorities estimate it will take Egypt at least six months to come up to Israel's present fighting strength and equipment.

A Pentagon report to the President credits Israel with superiority in ground forces as well as in the air. As in the case of the latter, the ground margins are small and can be quickly surpassed.

The Pentagon survey indicates that most of Israel's equipment is of World War II vintage; some of it, particularly tanks, extensively rebuilt.

So far, Egypt has received seven shipments of Red arms.

They consist of both new weapons, made in Czechoslovakia, and Soviet equipment from World War II. The latter includes a few tanks. Also, a large contingent of Russian officers and "technicians" have arrived in Egypt.

In addition to this Communist mission, Egypt and Syria have West German training missions.

Israel has no foreign missions at present.

Egypt is barring all foreign military officers from a port area when a shipment of Red weapons is unloaded.

NOTE: Molotov has indicated willingness to discuss the tense Middle East situation if the U.S. will agree to consider Far Eastern issues at the Geneva conference. The Soviet Foreign Minister put out this feeler in private conversations with British and French officials. Secretary Dulles has cold-shouldered the proposal.

SPARKS — Most intriguing get-well gift received by President Eisenhower is a large topaz ring from Emperor Haile Selassie. The Ethiopian ruler, who was a White House guest last year, wrote the President that the ring is very old and is reputed to have magic powers to ward off evils and to cure sickness.

General Matthew Ridgway, retired Army Chief of Staff, is going to continue his fight against curtailment of the Army. His opposition to that cost him a second term as Chief of Staff. Ridgway, now board chairman of the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research, Pittsburgh, will carry on his battle in a book, which will be published next Spring after being serialized in a national magazine. . . . The three military services are going in strong for automation. A of them are mechanizing administrative centers. Illustrative is the complete mechanization of the Army's giant Finance Center at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

Cathedral City Chamber Discusses Future Needs

CATHEDRAL CITY—The Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce held a joint meeting with the Cathedral Sanitation district board last night to hear an outline of necessary steps in planning a future sewage disposal system for the community.

C. L. Calder of Voorheis-Trindle engineering consultants, answered questions. At the conclusion of the discussion the Chamber directors passed a resolution addressed to the sanitation district recommending that steps be taken to secure an engineering survey so that a sewage disposal site might be secured.

It was pointed out that a sewage disposal system in this area would probably not be required for the next several years. As the sanitation board is empowered to act only for Cathedral City proper, Walter Melrose of Sunair and Palm Springs heights, adjoining subdivisions, offered to defray his share of expenses for such a report. Representatives of the Charlesworth district expressed the opinion that no necessity for sewers was apparent in that area at present.

Chamber president Clark Cobb asked for discussion on the lighting of the Broadway Palm trees and the development of Sunair park. Everyone was in favor of these projects, but no conclusion was reached as to how to finance them. The care of the palm trees and the park has already created a problem in service charges which together with the maintenance of the town hall and the paying off of bonds on the fire station and library, are financed only by Chamber membership dues.

There was a discussion on the advisability of forming a community service tax district, to provide for street lighting and park development.

Though there was some mention of the proposed city mail delivery plan for this community, no word has been received from postal authorities as yet. The question was deferred to a later meeting.

La Quinta C of C to Serve Dinner

PALM DESERT — A fried chicken dinner will be served Sunday afternoon, November 20, by the La Quinta Chamber of Commerce and at 2 p.m. John Hilton, desert landscape artist, will complete and present a painting to the chamber.

The painting of a La Quinta scene will be used to encourage sales of building blocks for the La Quinta community building program, with some block buyer receiving the painting as a gift.

"Coachella Valley residents are invited to dine and to see the painting and its completion Sunday," President Fred Williams said.

Angelo's Reports Change in Routine

PALM DESERT — Sheriff's deputies have investigated many cases of "break-ins," but, a new wrinkle was added Saturday when a case of a "break-out" at Angelo's in Palm Desert was reported.

Deputies were notified about 4:30 a.m. that someone had apparently cut their way out of the restaurant sometime after closing hours the night before.

It was assumed by the officers that a late customer had inadvertently been locked in when the place was closed. Nothing was reported missing and there was no evidence of a search of the premises.

Shrine Clubs Plan Stag Party Dec. 5

PALM DESERT — Shrine Club Stag Party sponsored jointly by the Date Empire Shrine Club and the Palm Springs Shrine Club has been planned for Monday evening, December 5, at Angelos Restaurant. This will be the first party to be sponsored by both clubs and several more are planned within the next few months. Special entertainment has been secured from Los Angeles. The privilege of attendance has been extended to all Masons and Shriners in the area regardless of membership in one of the local Shrine Clubs. Tickets are available at the Indio Florist Shop in Indio. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Dr. Charles B. Alexander, Chairman; Col. James P. Westfield, H. M. Stanley of Date Empire Shrine Club; J. J. Almacey, Max Grone, Peter Sheptenko, of Palm Springs Shrine Club.

Between competing events, if time permits, ski acts will be performed by club members, according to Commodore Pete Kotler of Glendale.

Competition will be held in jumping, skiing, and slalom. Interest is keen on the perpetual trophy outcome, the over-all prize for the year.

How to be sure you are making the best buy in a new truck

➤ A new truck is an important investment. If you want to be sure you're getting the best buy, you've got to consider a lot of things: price, power, operating economy, good appearance—to mention only a few.

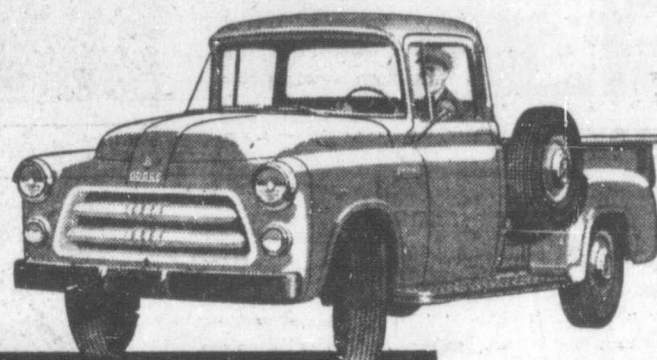

➤ Take price, for instance. Wouldn't it help you to know that you can buy a Dodge for surprisingly little money? Could be you didn't know Dodge trucks cost less than most other makes.

➤ Wouldn't it help you, too, to get the whole picture on truck power? The fact that Dodge Power-Dome V-8's outpower every other leading truck in the low- and medium-tonnage fields surely is important to your decision.

➤ And there are other Dodge advantages you'll want to think about—like the business-building beauty of Forward Look styling, and the long life that spreads low initial cost over years of dependable service.

➤ It all adds up to this: To be sure of your best truck buy, take a few minutes to talk to your Dodge dealer. Just a phone call will put the wheels in motion.

SPORTS in the SUN

Sports Sutterings

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

THE BIG SHOWDOWNS are coming up this week on the college football fronts. And, with the big games rest the Conference crowns and the Bowl bids.

In the Big Ten, Michigan, which appeared to be on its way all alone, now must play second fiddle to Ohio State with Michigan State right in there, too, as the final weekend approaches.

The big one could be settled in Ann Arbor November 19 when the Wolverines and the Buckeyes clash before a full house, which always counts up to 97,239 people.

Of the three contenders in the Big Ten, Michigan State has the toughest job since the Spartans have only one Conference game left while Michigan and Ohio have two each.

ON THE west coast, UCLA has practically eliminated the challenge of Oregon State with each having one to play. Oregon State has lost one Conference game, while the Uclans are undefeated in their loop. UCLA still must face Southern California while Oregon State has Oregon.

The classic is coming up in the Big Seven Conference as Oklahoma and Nebraska, tied in their loop, get set for their big one Saturday.

In the Southwest, the race appears to be wide open yet as Texas A & M, and Texas Christian still have something to say about the outcome. Texas A & M, leading at this time, still must play Texas.

Mississippi and Auburn are given the best chances in the Southeastern Conference brawl with Mississippi still having to face the tough Mississippi State team. Auburn, which has a tie on its record, has Alabama yet to play.

MARYLAND RATED Number One in most of the polls, settled the Atlantic Coast Conference issue Saturday with a 25-12 win over Clemson.

The nation's two major undefeated teams, Maryland and Oklahoma, appear all set to stay that way to the end. The Terrapins have only George Washington to beat for an undefeated season. Oklahoma has to get by Nebraska for a conference clincher.

Harvey Testifies Part of Income is Ronnie's Pay

LOS ANGELES — Harvey Knox, stepfather of UCLA football star Ronnie Knox, says he is broke and his five-member family is supported by his actress-daughter and the $75 a month paid Ronnie by UCLA.

The elder Knox, 46, appeared in Superior Court Tuesday to explain why he has not paid off a judgment of $4,235.75 returned against him September 14, 1954.

The judgment was based on a $3000 promissory note Knox signed December 31, 1948, in favor of David D. Livingston, 82, retired merchant who died a year later. The judgment also included attorneys' fees and interest.

Knox said he had reached an out-of-court settlement with attorneys for Livingston's estate, but testified, "I have no assets, no bank account and only own the clothes on my back."

Terry Moore Seeks 2.5 Million Balm

SANTA MONICA — Actress Terry Moore sought 2½ million dollars damages today from a magazine, charging it hurt her reputation by implying that she wore no underpants during a visit to Turkey.

The suit against Rave magazine was filed on Miss Moore's behalf by attorney Jerry Geisler who said a recent article in the magazine tended to "reflect on Miss Moore's character."

AN ARCHERY RANGE with a competent instructor is the latest sports feature of the Happy Spaces Club program at DeLuxe Trailer Park. Dan Metzger, former manager of Hollywood Archery but now a resident of Palm Springs, will be in charge of the new program which starts Sunday afternoon, November 20. Private of class lessons will be given. The archery course at Happy Spaces faces the open desert, and will have the advantage of approximately 100 target ranges.

Michigan, UCLA, Favored to Win Rose Bowl Bids

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

Michigan and UCLA will clinch Rose Bowl berths by winning their final conference games this Saturday, the football odds-men predicted today.

Both victories would carry league championships as well, and the oddsmakers also foresee titles being clinched this week by Princeton in the Ivy League and Oklahoma in the Big Seven. And they say Texas Christian and Pittsburgh will improve their chances of bowl bids by scoring victories.

Michigan was named only a six-point favorite over Ohio State in their battle for the Big Ten crown at Ann Arbor, Michigan. An Ohio State upset would give the Buckeyes the league title—but would put Michigan State in the Rose Bowl since Ohio State is ineligible.

UCLA is favored by a more solid 10 points over Southern California in their nationally televised game at Los Angeles. The Uclans might get the Pacific Coast Conference title and bowl bid even if they lose, because the odds-men figure second-place Oregon State as a six point underdog against traditional rival Oregon.

Oklahoma, already assured of a berth in the Orange Bowl and now ranked the nation's No. 1 team, is a 24-point favorite over Nebraska in the game that will give the winner the Big Seven championship.

Princeton, which seized the Ivy League lead last week by beating Yale, is a 12-point favorite to capture the conference crown by beating Dartmouth this week. Should the Tigers stumble, second-place Yale is a 12-point favorite in its 72nd annual game against Harvard.

Texas Christian is a 14-point favorite over Rice, which would move the Horned Frogs within one victory of clinching the host spot in the Cotton Bowl.

And Pittsburgh is a six-point favorite over Penn State. Reports from New Orleans are that Pitt now is a good bet to get an invitation to the Sugar Bowl, if it can win this final game.

Here's how the odds-makers view some of the other leading games:

East—Maryland 26 over George Washington, Columbia - Rutgers even. West Virginia 7 over Syracuse.

Midwest — Colorado 15 over Iowa State, Purdue 8 over Indiana, Missouri 7 over Kansas, Wisconsin 7 over Minnesota, Illinois 20 over Northwestern, Kansas State 7 over Oklahoma A&M, Michigan State 35 over Marquette, Detroit - Tulsa even.

South—Auburn seven over Clemson, Duke 15 over Wake Forest, Tennessee 6 over Kentucky, North Carolina 6 over Virginia, Vanderbilt 7 over Florida, North Carolina State 8 over William & Mary.

Southwest—Houston 13 over Villanova, Arkansas 6 over LSU, Texas Tech 12 over College of Pacific.

Far West—Stanford 18 over California, Washington 15 over Washington State.

International Champions to Race in City

Leading Sports Car Driver of England Included in List

Possibility that the great Stirling Moss, England's foremost sports car driver of the day, will compete in the Palm Springs road races Dec. 3-4, has skyrocketed interest in the classic due to draw a top field of some 300 cars.

Moss is presently in this country and has advised friends here that he would like to visit Southern California before returning to London. If he makes it to the West Coast, Moss' friends say there is a good chance he will go in the California Sports Car Club's desert races.

THE YOUNG BRITISHER has been a sensation on the German Mercedes-Benz team, which won the title in Europe this season. It was Manuel Fangio of Argentina, the world champion, Kling, Fitch and Moss who were most instrumental in bringing the title to Mercedes-Benz, which announced at the windup that it was abandoning racing.

Latest rumor from Italy, where Tony Parravano, the Ingelwood contractor, reportedly is loading up with more Ferraris and Maseratis is that he contacted Moss and tried to induce him to drive for the Scuderia Parravano. Parravano is due here shortly from the boot country.

Race Chairman Joe Weissman and Ray Frug will receive Parravano's entries within a week, and among them will be Carroll Shelby, the Texas phenom. Parravano would like nothing better than to include Moss' name among his roster.

Other potent entries are due from Phil Hill, Santa Monica, Ferrari Monza, and Pete Lovely, Seattle, Porsche Cooper, winners in the over and under-1500cc main events at Sacramento recently.

CERTAIN STARTERS among the name drivers include Ernie McAfee, Beverly Hills, Ferrari Monza, victor in his last three main events, and the following Torrey Pines winners: Bill Murphy, Culver City, Buick-Kurtis; Pearce Woods, Whittier, Jaguar; Ken Miles, Hollywood, MG Special; Bruce Kessler, Beverly Hills, Mercedes-Benz 300SL; and Jean Pierre Kunstle, Carmel, Porsche Speedster.

The Palm Springs action will see seven races on Saturday, December 3, and five, topped by the under and over-1500cc main events over the 2.3-mile airport course, the following day.

Campbell Again Bailed by Wind

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Donald Campbell, British speedboat champion, once again called off an attempt to break his own world's record today because of adverse wind conditions.

Campbell had planned to make runs with his jet-propelled Bluebird II at dawn. He said he was not satisfied with wind conditions.

Campbell said he might "have a go at it" later today.

Campbell hoped to race his boat at better than 202.32 miles an hour, the world mark which he set in England last year.

3-Team Round Robin Matches Taken by SMC

Shadow Mountain Polo Club won a three-team round robin Saturday from the Palm Springs Red Diamonds and the Yuma, Arizona, Polo Club. The matches, ending with an 11-9-7 score, were played at Shadow Mountain Club over the weekend.

Lisle Nixon, of the host team, displayed fine stick work to lead his club into a closely-knit team victory. Lloyd Phillips and Ted Pierce were Nixon's teammates.

SMC beat the Yuma club by two more goals than did the Red Diamonds, thus affording the victors the pleasure of handing the present Red Diamonds their first loss.

Yuma avenged themselves the next day. At the end of four chukkas, the Arizonans were tied 6-6 with SMC. An overtime, or sudden death chukka gave the visitors the time necessary to slide one in for a final 7-6 close-out score.

No Wagering on Race To Pick Trot Champ

INGLEWOOD — The $5000-added Western Trot, which annually determines the three-year-old trotting champion of the Western Harness Racing Association meeting at Hollywood Park, was held today as a special non-betting event.

The Western drew only four entries. Heading the quartet were Saul Camp's Scott Frost, Opponents were C. A. Faulder's Silver Field, E. C. Moriarty's Black Rico and Hayes Fair Acres Stable's Lusty McKinney.

MODERN GOLF

Today we will talk about the correct way to play a sand trap shot. This shot is one of the easiest shots in golf but the golfer tends to make it the hardest.

When you address the ball in the trap, be sure to work your feet well down in the sand in order not to slip when you swing the club.

Play the ball off the left heel with twenty per cent more weight on the left foot at all times. Take the club back on the outside of the arc with the arms.

Now concentrate on cutting across the sand two inches behind the ball. Hit the sand where you feel that the ball should land. If you have a short shot, work the sand with an easy action. Add more power as the shots get longer.

If the shot is over one hundred feet long, then, of course, you are going to have to play a pitch shot by keeping the weight on the left side and hitting the ball and then the sand. Keep your head down

Brown, Brodie Replace Arnett in 2 Departments

LOS ANGELES — UCLA's Sam Brown and Stanford's John Brodie have replaced Southern California's Jon Arnett in two individual offensive departments of Pacific Coast Conference play, statistics released by the PCC commissioner's office showed today.

In team performances, Stanford replaced Oregon as the total offense leader while UCLA continued as the top defensive team. Brown gained 140 yards rushing last weekend to take leadership with 679 yards for the season. Bill Tarr, Stanford, was second, with 596. Arnett, whose team was idle last week, has 590.

LITTLE LEAGUERS TO BE HONORED TUESDAY

The annual Little League and Minor League Dinner will be held Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Playhouse on the Polo Grounds. The dinner was to have been held Friday, but was set back four days due to a conflict in dates.

Howard Haddock, City Recreation Director, invited all members of the Little League and of the Minor League. The invitation included managers, co-managers, players, and the Little League Commission.

Haddock is co-chairman of the annual dinner with Jimmy Morton. Morton announced the menu to include hot dogs, hamburgers, potato chips and ice cream.

Transportation from the Playhouse, after the dinner and program, will be furnished, Haddock said.

The Little League is sponsored by the Little League Commission and the City Recreation Department.

Officers of the league are Al Weingarten, president; Russ Lonchus, vice-president; Harold West, treasurer; Scott Thompson, commissioner; A. R. Simon, attorney; and Julie Edelstein, scorekeeper.

The four teams were managed by Red Ohler, Strebe Stars; Mark Hopp and Jack Moore, Hathaway Buick, Merideth Helm, Junior Police; and Chuck LaFrantz and Gene Helms, Boys Club.

The Minor League was sponsored last Summer by the Boys Club and the City Recreation Department. LaFrantz is director of the Boys Club.

The members of the winning team in the league, the Strebe Stars, will receive individual awards, and all players, regardless of the place their team finished in, will be awarded certificates.

Cards 78 for Top Spot at Thunderbird

Victory Dinner Tonight to Follow Final Round Today

Peggy Rutledge, of Los Angeles, stroked a 78 yesterday at Thunderbird for her second 18 holes in the fifth annual Ladies Invitational Tournament to give her the top spot over 117 entries with a two day total of 161. The tournament will end tonight.

Miss Rutledge's first day actual score, 83, and yesterday's 78, not only added up as best low gross, but her handicap of four, giving her a net of 153, the best of the match so far.

NATIONAL WOMENS Champion Barbara Romack of Sacramento, tied in yesterday's play with Ruth McCullah, with 79, to follow behind Miss Rutledge, for yesterday's best.

Monday's leader, Mrs. Lila Clark, San Diego, yesterday fired her second 82 of the invitational to tie with Betty Loveys, Palos Verdes. They tallied a two-day 164 gross.

After handicaps were subtracted from the Clark and Loveys scores, they placed second and third in low net competition behind Miss Rutledge for 36-hole totals. Mrs. Clark's net of 158 gave her the temporary third spot, while a net 156 by Mrs. Loveys put her in second place.

TODAY'S PLAY will include the wind-up 18 holes by ladies who played their first round either Monday or yesterday.

The golfers journeyed from every section of the country to compete in the Thunderbird tourney, but most of the favorites are Californians.

A victory dinner, including a fashion show, will end the three day feature tonight.

A recapitulation of the two-day scores is as follows:

1st—Peggy Rutledge, Los Angeles CC, 83-78.

2nd—Mrs. Betty Loveys, Palos Verdes, 82-81.

3rd—Mrs. Lila Clark, San Diego, 82-82.

4th—Margaret Munch, 85-83.

5th—Mrs. Vera Collins, Annadale, 89-90.

NET SCORES: 151—Peggy Rutledge; 156—Betty Loveys; 158—Lila Clark; 159—Ruby Meyers.

TUESDAY LOW ROUND: Peggy Rutledge, 40-38-78; Barbara Romack, 41-39-79; Mrs. Ruth McCullah, 40-39-79; Low net: Ruby Meyers, 71.

Nation Prepares for Observance of 2nd S-D Day

EDITOR'S NOTE — President Eisenhower's Committee for Traffic Safety is promoting the country's second annual safe driving campaign in the hope of reducing death and injury on streets and highways. The campaign started Nov. 1 and ends Dec. 1—Safe Driving Day. Following is the first of three dispatches on traffic slaughter in America, causes of accidents, and what can be done to make the automotive age less dangerous.

By JOSEPH L. MYLER
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (UP) — Traffic accidents are killing 36,000 Americans a year. Does anybody care? Of 1,250,000 merely injured 100,000 are disabled for the rest of their lives.

Last year traffic accidents cost U. S. citizens $4,400,000,000 in medical and burial bills and property loss.

Anyone listening?

FROM THE TURN of the century through 1951, cars and trucks killed one million persons. At present rates it will take only another 25 years to add one million dead.

And by 2000 A. D. the accumulated toll for the first 100 years of the motor vehicle in America could hit:

More than three million killed, more than 10,000,000 hurt, and some 10,500,000 permanently disabled.

But does anybody care?

PUBLIC APATHY toward the ceaseless carnage on the nation's roads and streets is, authorities say, suffocatingly profound.

Of course, there are many who do care—the bereaved, the injured, for example, and such organizations as the National Safety Council, the Automotive Safety Foundation, the American Automobile Associations, civic groups and schools, and hosts of city, state, and federal officials, not to mention the auto and insurance industries.

And President Eisenhower cares deeply. Last year he greatly expanded the size and program of the White House conference on highway safety, established in 1946, and called eloquently for reduction of the slaughter.

THIS YEAR, while Mr. Eisenhower recovers from his heart attack, the President's Committee for Traffic Safety is promoting the country's second annual Safe Driving Day S. D. D. — Thursday, Dec. 1. S. D. D.'s purpose: To demonstrate that "traffic accidents can be greatly reduced when motorists and pedestrians fulfill their moral and civic responsibility for safety."

It's challenge: "Not a single traffic accident during the 24-hour period—in daylight or darkness."

THE HOPE: To show Americans that "if they can greatly reduce the accidents for one day, they can do it every day of the year." The American Automobile Association makes a business of studying causes of traffic accidents and trying to figure out how to prevent them. Causes are myriad—everything from alcohol to zigzag highways.

But what is the one big factor? W. L. Robinson, associate director of the AAA's traffic engineering and safety department, answered this way:

"It boils down to inattention and poor judgment."

A NORMALLY - SAFE driver goes off. Another gets sore at a slowpoke. A guy who never did it before takes a chance because he is a couple of minutes late for dinner. A pedestrian who knows better jay-walks across the street in the middle of the block.

Says the AAA: "Alertness avoids accidents."

A scientifically dependable study of traffic accident statistics is impossible because accident reporting, the AAA says, "is inadequate."

But the National Safety Council has made surveys here and there to find out what was going on

PUSH U. S. SAVINGS STAMPS PLAN IN SCHOOLS

PROMOTING 1955-56 SCHOOL savings plan, Margo Humphrey, 13-year-old granddaughter of Treasury Secretary George M. and Mrs. Humphrey, holds savings bond poster which will be presented in certificate form to all students who enroll in plan. (International)

San Francisco's Ferries Going

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP) — Another phase of San Francisco's colorful past will fade out a year from now when four ferry boats will be taken off the bay.

The big white chuggers of the Richmond-San Rafael line will stop operating in October, 1956, after a $62,000,000 bridge now under construction is completed.

Demise of the four ferries will leave only two of the dependable boats on the bay, both run by the Southern Pacific Railroad to connect its Oakland terminal with San Francisco.

The San Rafael-Richmond line was founded in 1915, the year of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco. By 1930, the heyday of the ferries, 43 boats were chugging up bay waters, operated by Southern Pacific, Santa Fe Railway and Key System Transit Lines.

But with the opening of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge in 1936 and the Golden Gate Bridge in 1937 the number of ferries was reduced drastically.

The history of bay ferries dates back to 1850 when Capt. Thomas Gray offered twice weekly service, tides and weather permitting, between here and Oakland on a boat named Kangaroo.

When the Richmond-San Rafael line goes out of existence next year, the swift efficiency of the toll bridge will chip deeper into another symbol of a more leisurely past.

Democrats Find First Candidate as Congressman

The Democrats and Republicans now have one candidate each for the Congressional post being vacated by John Phillips after this term expires.

Meeting in Indianapolis Sunday, a group of prominent Democrats from throughout the 29th Congressional District endorsed D. S. Saund, judge of Imperial County's Western Judicial district and chairman of Imperial County's Central Democratic Committee, as their candidate.

Only Republican candidate to officially announce for the position to date is Mrs. Jacqueline Cochran Odium, who is expected to return to her Indian home from Europe today.

Bruce Shangle, Blythe, who ran against Phillips in 1954, called upon the group at Indianapolis for a standing vote of endorsement for the 56-year-old candidate, and most of the 60 Democratic leaders present responded.

Dad Changes Name To Please His Kids

SANTA ANA (UP) — A Santa Ana man petitioned superior court to change his name, saying his four children found it embarrassing.

He requested the family name be changed from Sapp to Stapp.

When fatal accidents occurred, they show that in 72 per cent of the cases drivers were guilty of some violation or other. In 94 per cent nothing was found mechanically wrong with the car.

Not Too Happy with Procedure

BOISE, Idaho (UP) — Dr. L. J. Anderson's Labrador retriever, Dan McGrew, probably saved the lives of his master and three other duck hunters Monday by attracting help when their aluminum boat capsized but Anderson isn't too happy with the dog's emergency procedure.

In the first place, Anderson said, it was the dog that upset the boat by getting excited when a duck hit the water nearby.

And in the second place, he said, the dog first rescued one by one nine dead ducks that had been dumped into the water before he ran up and down the bank to attract attention.

Slow Poke Jailed as Drug Peddler

CHICAGO, (UP) — Two motorists, irked by a slow-poke car which was idling along at five miles an hour, forced it to the curb Monday and asked the driver why he was going so slow.

"Don't mess with me, boy, I'm a policeman," the driver replied, flashing a badge.

The complaining motorists, who happened to be Police Detectives John Craig and William Davies, arrested the motorist after searching his auto and finding a cache of narcotics.

Seven times as many people live in New York City today as occupied all North America north of Mexico when Columbus arrived.

Floating Crap Game Drifted Wrong Way

NEW YORK (UP) — Police said they finally broke up a long-running floating crap game Monday night because the operators got a little careless about where it floated.

Vice squad raiders found the game operating about two blocks from police headquarters.
